Re: U.S. Patent Application No. 09/779,964
Filed February 9, 2001
Entitled: AUTOMATED SALES SYSTEM FOR THE MOVING AND STORAGE INDUSTRY

Dear Chris:

We are following up our prior correspondence where we indicated we were withdrawing from representation of you in the subject application.

My formal withdrawal as attorney was not approved because it did not say that not only I was withdrawing on behalf of myself but on behalf of all the other Gray Cary patent attorneys who were listed in the original Power of Attorney which was submitted in the application.

Accordingly, I have submitted the attached new Request for Withdrawal as Attorney which withdrawal covers not only myself but all the other Gray Cary attorneys.

Other than the denial of my request to withdraw as attorney of record, the only communication we have received from the Patent Office since I filed the withdrawal request on April 22, 2002, was the Official Filing Receipt which I mailed you on April 25, 2002.

Other than the Information Disclosure Statement which I indicated should preferably be filed soon, there is no outstanding deadline for filing papers in the Patent Office.

Very truly yours,

Gray Cary Ware & Freidenrich LLP
